

Manuscript preparation: Case Reports

A case report must present a rare pathology, a case of didactic value, or a common case listing all diagnostic imaging signs and elements for a differential diagnosis.

Title page

A concise and informative title containing the final diagnosis

Keywords.

See our instructions for other manuscripts

Short introduction

Not more than 2-3 paragraphs clearly stating why the case is presented

Case presentation

Should focus on those aspects that are necessary to convey the point the authors wish to make

Discussion

See our instructions for other manuscripts

References

Not more than 6. See our instructions for other manuscripts

Max 3,500 characters (spaces included), 4 illustrations